

May Youth Meeting

Ashley Montgomery called a North Dakota Quarter Horse Youth Meeting to order at 6:05 p.m.

The Secretarys report was read. A motion was made to accept the Secretarys report. The motion was passed. Melissa Montgomery read treasures report. There was $20.00 not deposited. A motion was made to accept the treasures report. The motion was also passed.

Old business

The men's western pleasure class was discussed. The form to enter was passed around to all the youth present. This could also be obtained in the office.

The youth bake sale was a huge success! The youth made over $860.00 in this even. Thank you's are going to be sent out to those who donated their time to help during this event.

New business

Tom Chown will be doing a showmanship clinic in the Winter Show arena right after the show. All that is required for this clinic is a cowboy hat and your horse.

The last of the new business that the youth talked about was the Ford raffle tickets. Youth are required to sell a minimum of 25 tickets. This will help us reach our goal of getting an extra $1,000 for year-end awards. An added bonus for selling the most tickets was:

50 1st

30 2nd

20-3rd

The tickets are 5/ticket; 25/ book turn it my may show

A motion was made to adjourn the meeting. The motion was passed.
