

NDAQHA
Meeting Minutes
September 13, 2008

President Ashley Ebensteiner called the meeting to order.

Minutes from the August 30th meeting were read. Motion to approve minutes as read was made by Kelly Haugen. Second by Dana Fiedler. Motion carried Treasurers report was given. Kelly Haugen motioned to approve the report. Seconded by Sandra Onstad. Motion carried.

Lori Froemke made a motion that a NSF charge of $30.00 be charged to anyone giving the NDAQHA a NSF check. Motion seconded by Alisha Buckle. Motion carried. Sherri Matuska will make sure there is a notice of this posted at the show office.

Kelly Haugen reported that she had ordered spurs and sheets for the Futurity awards that are presented by the amateurs. The cost was approximately $60.00 per award. Kelly Haugen and Sherri Matuska are working together on the circuit awards.

Kelly Haugen will order year end awards again this year. She will work with people to get what they want, but they must do the research on the item they want and let her know. She will then order the award. If you do not contact Kelly on what you want for an award, she will make the choice. Awards amounts will be the same as last year. Champion $75.00, Reserve Champion $50.00, Top 4 awards $25.00. All Around Champion $150.00 Reserve all Around Champion $100.00. The same guidelines are in place for receiving awards as last year. Must attend two meetings, participate in two fundraisers, participate 10 times in the event, be a member of the amateur association. If you do not meet the criteria, you are removed from the prize list and those meeting the criteria move up in the standing.

Recipes are in and the cookbook will be ready for the January meeting to start sales.

Discussion was held on the amateur clothing. The color of the letter Q in the logo was discussed. Alisha Buckle motioned for a turquoise blue color. Second by Sandra Onstad. Motion carried. Kelly would like suggestions on what type of clothes to order for the amateurs.

Send in amateur news to Sherri Matuska for the website.

Alisha Buckle motioned to adjourn. Second by Ashley Montgomery.
