GENERAL RULES

1. The NDQHA Futurity is open to all breeds. Owners & Exhibitors must be members in good standing with NDQHA. Non-pro entrants may be required to show proof of amateur status.

2. The judging for the Futurity will be held in conjunction with the NDQHA Three Star III show at Valley City Winter Show Arena. All AQHA rules shall apply. Tie breaker judges will be designated before show.

4. Date of nomination and payments will be determined by postmark. A late fee of $.75 per day will apply and be collected from all contestants.

5. No refunds or substitutions of horses will be allowed except in the case of death of horse. A letter from a veterinarian must be sent with substitution or refund request.

6. Horses nominated and subsequently sold remain eligible if the new owners are or become members of NDQHA and all sustaining payments, including late fees are paid. Owners are expected to notify the Futurity secretary of any changes.

7. A photocopy of both sides of the registration papers must be made available to the Futurity secretary before the show. Original registration papers must be brought to the Futurity for verification.

8. All NSF checks will be charged $30 service charge. Any NSF checks will result in cancellation of the entry, unless a money order or certified check is received within seven days of notice by the secretary.

9. Halter entries will be placed with the combined score of the four judges placing all futurity entrants each day. Payout is based on overall placing.

11. All entries will pay 1/3 of the purse each go around, with 1/3 for the overall. All placings are based on a composite score.

12. Points will be awarded according to the total number of entries in each class. Highest point total of the four judges will determine overall winner for each class.

13. All entries (owners & exhibitors) must be NDQHA members.
